COUGARS DEFEAT JACKSON TO TAKE CHAMPIONSHIP

7 Appointed On Study Of Jumping Hill

Special Committee To Report At Meeting On April 29

If seven is a "lucky number," then the worries of the Placerville Ski Club members about their plans for a jumping hill in the Twin Bridges area are all for nothing, for seven members of the club have been appointed as a committee to make a study of the project.

They will report their recommendations at a special meeting of the club to be held April 29, and following their report an effort will be made to develop a program of work to be carried out during the summer, looking to the building of a jumping hill.

Robert Carpenter, Jr., is chairman of the committee, with Bert Parsons, Floyd Poole, Jack Berry, Gunnar Forrsbeck, John Roy and Walton Honn.

The committee will visit the area Sunday to make a study of conditions and a comparison of possible locations in an attempt to select a hill best suited to the needs of winter sports development in the county.

Two locations are reported as under consideration, one of which the ski club has already leased. The second location is not far removed from the first site and, it is reported, might be available to the club if it is desired.

14 DE MOLAYS TO CONVENTION

Ed Sayers Candidate For Election As State Head

Edward Sayers, state senior counselor for the Order of DeMolay, will lead a delegation of 14 members of El Dorado Chapter of the order, leaving Thursday morning for the annual state convention of the order, at Santa Cruz.

Delegates from the chapter are Jack Ruple and Larry Hearn.

Sayers, state senior counselor of the order, is a candidate for election as state Master Counselor, at the convention. The election will be held Saturday, probably during the afternoon session.

The convention, beginning with social functions Thursday evening, will convene formally on Friday with sessions continuing until Sunday morning.

In addition to the state senior counselor and the delegates, the following members of El Dorado Chapter will attend, George Smith, Robert Veerkamp, Tom Caswell, Arthur Hackwood, Elwyn Scheiber, Howard Chaix, Jack Rhodes, Jr., Kenneth Hepburn, Harold Duden, Edward Evans, Orville Geoffroy.

Horse Superior In "Joust" With Taxi

Probably yearning for a return to the so-called "good old days" an estray horse attacked the Hangtown Taxi Wednesday morning on Main Street opposite the telephone office.

The result is that the taxi is in the garage and the horse at the city barns; both laid up for repairs.

But the repairs to the taxi will be a little more expensive than the repairs to the horse.

"Red" Graves, driver, reports the horse was loose and that his car was at a full stop when the animal shied into it.

Frank Spurrier, assistant state 4-H Club leader, was expected here Wednesday afternoon to meet with the county 4-H club council Wednesday night on their plans for the 4-H Club "Fun Night," at Rescue on April 30.

MRS. JACQUIER ENDS JOURNEY

Smith Flat Lady Home From 3-Month Visit Abroad

Mrs. Kittie Jacquier returned to her home at Smith Flat Tuesday evening, concluding a three-month visit abroad. "Like the poet," she said, "I have seen great things, but would I give this spot and the peaceful life I live for all their Paris and Rome."

Mrs. Jacquier returned to New York April 8 and spent some time visiting at Patterson, New Jersey and other eastern points before continuing to San Francisco for a short visit, and thence home. She returned from New York by rail.

Sailing late in January, Mrs. Jacquier was a member of a party formed by members of the Rosicrucian Society for the cruise, which included stops at Mediterranean ports in Africa and in Europe as well as visits to continental Europe and the British Isles.

BARD'S BIRTH FETED TUESDAY

Shakespeare Club Has Program To Mark Anniversary

Members of the Shakespeare Club observed on Tuesday the birthday of Wm. Shakespeare who was born on April 23, 1564.

Musical numbers were given by the Choral Section and in addition solos by Mrs. M. E. Raber.

Mrs. M. P. Bennett read parts from "Romeo and Juliet;" Mrs. Price read from "Two Gentlemen of Verona" while Mrs. Winkelman posed as Sylvia. High lights on the reign of Queen Elizabeth was given by Mrs. Charles Schaeppi and Mrs. Charles Hand told of the life and writings of Shakespeare.

A short history of his home was given by Mrs. George Luse. Members of the club portrayed the "Seven Ages of Man."

Refreshments, consisting of ice cream and a birthday cake, were served by Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. R. G. Risser and committee. A silver offering was collected.

THOS. O'CONNOR, LUMBER WORKER, TAKEN TUESDAY

The funeral services for Thomas O'Connor, 72, retired former employee of the Michigan-California Lumber Company at Pino Grande, who died Tuesday night at a Placerville hospital, will be held on Friday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church.

Rev. Father T. J. Hayes will have charge. Burial will be at Catholic cemetery.

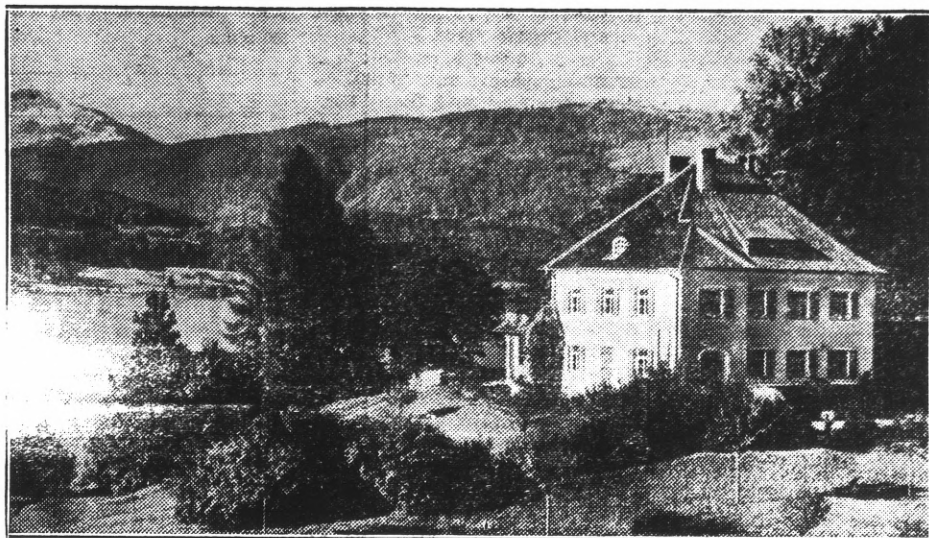

Mr. O'Connor was a native of New York state and had been a resident of this county since 1916, being employed in various lumber camps, principally the one at Pino Grande.

He has a large number of friends who will remember him kindly for his exceeding good nature and his many other excellent traits of character. There are no known relatives.

County Native Pays Visit To Old Chums

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schulerich of Hillsborough, Oregon, were recently visiting old friends and school mates in El Dorado County. Mr. Schulerich is a native of El Dorado County and was born at Cold Springs in the early sixties. Among his old-time friends are Mrs. E. Killough, Mr. J. Miller and the Veerkamp boys. After leaving here several years ago, Mr. Schulerich went into business in the Oregon city and for ten years was a member of the Oregon legislature and is now president of the Hillsborough Bank.

Max Bollman was a Wednesday caller from Cold Springs.

WINDSOR'S NEW HOME—Located amid mountain tops of the Austrian Alps, here is Appesbach House, the new home of the Duke of Windsor, near St. Wolfgang, Austria. First impression of the house is one of extreme simplicity after Enzesfeld Castle, which the Duke left recently. A boathouse is at the edge of the lake. The main house, of two stories, is set amid gardens.

Coronation Curiosities

By Harold S. Corbin

SYMBOLIC SWORDS

Copyright, 1937, United Features Syndicate, Inc.

What would any ceremony like the coronation of King George, so deeply rooted in medieval pageantry, be without a sword? Not one, but four swords play an important part in the coronation. One of them is so ancient that its true origin is lost in antiquity. While there are various stories about it, they are mostly legendary.

Like King Arthur's famous sword Excalibur, this coronation weapon has a name. It is called Curtana or Curteen, presumably from the Latin curtus, meaning short.

It is also called the sword of Edward the Confessor, who acceded to the throne in 1042 and who was canonized as a saint. Perhaps the earliest reference to it among ancient manuscripts is in the account of the coronation of Queen Eleanor, wife of Henry III, in 1236, when it was mentioned by name and was reported to have been carried by the Earl of Huntingdon as Earl of Chester. Because it has no sharp point it is called the Sword of Peace. It is carried before the sovereign, in the coronation procession, between the Sword of Spirituality, which has an obtuse point, and the Sword of Justice, which is sharp-pointed.

The jeweled sword of state was made for George IV

Another ancient blade is the jeweled sword of state, bearing the rose of England, the thistle of Scotland and the shamrock of Ireland. This is girded on the monarch at the coronation in Westminster Abbey. Even Queen Anne was so girded, but Queen Victoria, who was in her teens, preferred to hold the sword in her hands.

After the King has been admonished to use it in defense of orphans and widows and in other good services, he unguirds the sword and returns it to the altar, whence the Lord Great Chamberlain sees that it is deposited in St. Edward's Chapel.

Meanwhile, another sword has been substituted for it and this is redeemed by one of the peers for 100 shillings. His offer accepted, he thenceforth carries the naked blade before the King for the rest of the ceremony.

TROUT PROPAGATION PROGRAM LAUNCHED ON AMERICAN RIVER

Alder, Aspen, Bryant, Plum And Sales Creeks Closed To Fishermen; Will Become Natural Breeding Areas

SACRAMENTO—First step toward restoring the south fork of the American River between Placerville and Lake Tahoe district to its former position as well stocked trout fishing stream was taken yesterday when George D. Nordenholt, director of natural resources, announced the closing of Alder, Aspen, Bryant, Plum and Sales creeks and their tributaries to fishing during the 1937 season.

LABOR SPLIT AT STOCKTON

Gov. Merriam Obtains Temporary Truce In Dispute

By JACK WELTER
United Press Staff Correspondent

STOCKTON (UP)—While Governor Merriam intervened to avert temporarily mass strike war in this rich agricultural area, an inter-union dispute developed which may frustrate labor's plans for a general walkout of all workers in San Joaquin County.

A tentative truce, called at the request of the governor's office, minimized fears of an immediate outbreak between Sheriff Harvey O'Dell's army of 1250 deputized citizens, armed with pick-handles, and union forces.

The truce, technically scheduled to end tonight, may be extended if Governor Merriam can succeed in mediating successfully the disputes involved in a strike of cannery and agricultural workers, union members at four Stockton canneries.

The conciliation meeting was to be called at 2 p. m., with special committees of cannery operators and union representatives in attendance. Meanwhile the canneries agreed not to attempt to reopen the strikebound plants and unions agreed to withdraw pickets.

The San Joaquin County Central Labor Council went ahead with a general strike vote. Several units of the 51 union organizations have notified the council they are in favor of a general strike in the event Sheriff O'Dell's "volunteers" fail to disband and negotiations are not resumed.

A controversy between the labor council and the building trades council threatened to disrupt the general strike plan, however.

Comprising 17 of the 51 unions, the building trades council, through Howard A. Gibson, president, announced the group was bound by an April-to-April contract which expressly forbade general strike action under terms laid down by the employers.

Spring Concert Of Choral On May 27th

Date for the Spring Concert of the Shakespeare Club choral will be May 27, it was announced Tuesday at the choral section's regular meeting and practice.

The creeks are tributaries of the south fork of the American and will be heavily planted this year in an effort to improve fishing conditions in the American, which has been depleted for several years.

The creeks will be used as breeding ponds, eliminating the expense of creating artificial breeding facilities along the American River.

Northern California sportsmen, including the Mt. Ralston Fish Planting club with its 1000 membership, have requested the closing of the tributary streams so that trout could propagate under natural conditions and go into the south fork.

Other closings, recommended by Nordenholt and given the consent of Governor Frank F. Merriam, include: El Dorado County: Elbert Showers and the two Leland lakes.

GARDEN SECTION MEETS TUESDAY AT TOOMBS HOME

Members of the Garden Section of the Shakespeare Club, and other members of the club, have been invited to meet Tuesday afternoon, April 27, at the home of Mrs. Frank Toombs.

All members are asked to meet at the clubhouse at 2 o'clock and those without cars may go with members who will be driving their cars.

The Macfleur Garden club of Sacramento, has invited members of this club to be their guests at the McKinley Park garden clubhouse on April 24 and 25; also the Folsom Neighborhood garden club will have a flower show at the Odd Fellows hall on May 1st. Shakespeare club members are cordially invited to attend and may take displays of plants and flowers to both shows.

Highway Worker Bags Bobcat At 300 Yards

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Chester Butz, state highway crew foreman, saw a bobcat 300 yards across the North Yuba River.

Seizing his rifle, he took aim and fired. The bullet pierced the cat's head.

Butz crossed the river and found both the dead bob cat and a slain deer. The cat had been feeding on a deer.

Mrs. Cecil Barker, Mrs. J. J. Wiley, Mrs. M. E. Wright and Robert Barker were among those from Placerville who attended the concert at Sacramento Tuesday evening, featuring John Charles Thomas with the Apollo male chorus.

Play Sonora On Saturday For Pennant

Over-Anxious Players Charged With Nine Errors

The Cougars copped their second athletic championship of the year in the northern division of the Mother Lode League of the California Inter-scholastic Federation on Tuesday afternoon when they repelled the Jackson high school nine, 10 to 8, in a wild and erratic game at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr., Memorial Park.

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Standard City, the Cougars clash with the Sonora high school club, winners in the southern half of the Mother Lode League, for the Mother Lode pennant.

The Cougars used Carsten and Schroth on the mound to finally turn back the Jackson challenge, and the invaders also used two pitchers, Vukajovich and Vasilovich.

The problem, from the Cougar angle, was not so much to solve the offerings of the Jackson hurlers, for Goodrich, Carsten and Buhlert were all able to (Continued on page 3)

ROOSEVELT IN ECONOMY DRIVE

Hopes To Pare Billion In Try To Balance Budget

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Roosevelt led Congress in a move to kill or curtail approximately $1,000,000,000 of "forgotten man" and flood control legislation today in the first big New Deal economy drive to balance the budget.

There was informal discussion among some legislators of an automatic cut of 10 per cent in all appropriations at this session of Congress. That could be achieved by joint resolution making mandatory retroactive reductions.

Mr. Roosevelt prefers to exercise his own discretion in curtailing expenditures after Congress has voted the money.

Pending legislation which probably must be modified, postponed or dropped altogether if the President's economy plan is effected, includes:

1. Farm tenancy, $135,000,000.
2. Education, $100,000,000.
3. Low cost housing, $30,000,000.
4. Crop insurance, $100,000,000.
5. Flood control, approximately $550,000,000.

Grand Master's Visit To Be At Hiram Lodge

Rollie W. Miller, Grand Master of Masons in California, will pay his official visit to the lodges of this district at a meeting at the Masonic temple at El Dorado on Wednesday, May 12.

Joining with Hiram Lodge No. 43, F. & A. M., in the meeting will be Georgetown Lodge No. 25, of Georgetown, and El Dorado Lodge No. 26, of Placerville.

The doings of the evening will open with a dinner at 6:30 o'clock at the Masonic temple, at El Dorado.

Albright Grandson Now Convalescent

Mrs. Laura Albright returned Tuesday evening from Oakland to which place she had been called ten days ago by word that her grandson, Tommie Burke, was to be operated upon.

The young man, son of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Burke, is now convalescent and has promised his grandmother that he will be sick no more.

Ora Marogna was in town from Shingle on Wednesday.

Evidence that baseball is in for a big box-office year was furnished by yesterday's six openers, which drew a total of 181,076 persons. Last year's eight opening day crowds totalled 204,543. This year's average was 30,179 compared with 25,568 last year.

"UNCLE DAVID" SENDS PRINCESS BIRTHDAY GIFT

WINDSOR, England (UP)—Princess Elizabeth, dancing with excitement, opened at breakfast time today the piles of presents awaiting her on the occasion of her 11th birthday.
The big surprise was a snow white pony from King George. Queen Elizabeth's present was a saddle and riding crop, to match the pony harness and bridle which Elizabeth received from the king at Christmas. Queen Mary, the grandmother, gave a suite of furniture for the princess' doll house. Princess Margaret Rose, who kept her present secret to the last moment, gave a leather hand bag.
There was a heavily sealed package, also, marked Vienna, with a card "from Uncle David"—the Duke of Windsor whose adoration made Elizabeth the heir to the throne.

TEEN AGE FROCK

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Special emphasis is being put on dresses for the 'teen-age girl. Tailored girl fashions such as this are designed to avoid the "awkward age." They are youthful but not childish, simple but not plain. Here is a charming tailored girl dress. It is made of gaily patterned crinkled cloquassay cotton and is one of the many cunning models of this material that is being shown in the shops and 'teen-age dress sections this spring.

An architect's drawing of Placerville grammar school showing the projected new addition to the building, at the rear of the center court, for which the district will be asked to vote $40,000 in bonds at a special election April 30. The three class rooms made possible by approval of the bond issue will relieve present overcrowding in the school.

All our educational leaders tell us that we must educate our children for the use of leisure time, because of the tendency to shorter working days, and to shorter work weeks. In order that our people may find a worthy use of this time, it is the duty of the school to find a number of things in which interests might lie. These interests, we are told, will lie in the fields of music, art, avocations, hobbies, theater and many other activities not heretofore covered by school curricula.

A school, in order to give adequate training and backgrounds for these new fields must have proper facilities and equipment. Here in Placerville, our school tries to keep up with these modern practices, but is seriously handicapped by lack of space and equipment, both for these things and regular school functions.

The modern school must have facilities for giving pupils adequate training in the above mentioned fields. An assembly hall, where programs might be given, or watched, is almost a necessity, if appreciation of art, music, drama and other things is to be taught.

We are told that we must teach children to participate in civic affairs. This we can do only by creating situations comparable to life situations in assembly periods. Therefore, it can be seen that this assembly building is vitally necessary to modern education in our school.

In addition to lack of facilities for things, we are told we must give in order to be adequate, we have a distinct need in our school for other things which lack of space curtails. Manual training and sewing facilities are decidedly at a low point. These subjects naturally, form the background, not only for basic vocations, and homemaking, but are the beginnings often of hobbies and avocations which give the individual a use of leisure time. The proposed additions to our school include plans for the proper use and maintenance of these subjects.

One of the things we lack more than anything else, is a school library. If our plans materialize, we will have space available for a library, which is so necessary. Children must be taught to find books in libraries, must be taught their value, both for recreational reading material, and for reference work. This, we will be enabled to do, if plans go through.

Finally, adequate facilities for lunch room purposes, will be available if the voters see fit to endow the school with these modern, very much needed facilities.

BAIL BONDSMEN IN GRAND JURY TOILS TONIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Peter P. McDonough and his nephew, Harry Rice, whose bail bond brokerage firm has been called "the Fountainhead of Corruption" in San Francisco's alleged $1,000,000 vice pay-off system, will appear for questioning before the county grand jury, tonight.

They are expected to arrive at the grand jury chambers armed with affidavits to refute the charge in the Edwin N. Atherton report that their place of business is San Francisco's vice headquarters.

REFERENDUM COURT CHANGES

D. A. R. Convention Is Opposed To Bills In Congress

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Daughters of the American Revolution adopted a resolution at their 46th Continental Congress today asking that the President's court plan be submitted to the electorate in the form of a constitutional amendment.

The resolution definitely opposed House and Senate bills embodying the court plan as proposed by President Roosevelt and asked that the whole question be submitted to the electorate.

The resolution was adopted by a voice vote without discussion. Mrs. R. J. Johnston, Humboldt, la., chairman of the resolutions committee, presented the matter. There was a scattering of opposition voices.

The resolution held that the proposed court plan would endanger the system of checks and balances of the three branches of government. It contended that any proposal to limit or broaden the scope of powers of the three departments of government should be submitted to the people in the form of a constitutional amendment.

TRIAL "BOOMS" KENTUCKY TOWN

Former State Officer Is Charged With Murder

NEW CASTLE, Ky. (UP)—Brigadier General Henry H. Denhardt, one-time Lieutenant Governor and thrice a soldier, went to trial today for his life in what he considered the antagonistic atmosphere of Henry County.
He was charged with the death of his petite fiancée, Mrs. Verna Garr Taylor, by reputation the prettiest woman in two counties despite her 40 years. Commonwealth Prosecutor H. B. Kinsolving announced he would seek the death penalty.

The trial gave promise of being an economic success for New Castle. The village experienced a sudden boom in population far above its normal 500 residents.

Balloon-sellers competed for the crowd's attention with thrifty stock raisers who brought their mules and horses to New Castle to be traded in front of the courthouse.

WOODEN BOXES DANCE PLANNED FOR MAY 22nd

El Dorado Lumber and Wooden Box Employees' Association, which is the organization which calls attention to the prosperity possible in the community through strengthening of the lumber industry by means of the current "Wooden Box" campaign, will give a dance on May 22.

The event will be given more for the purpose of calling attention to the "Wooden Box" campaign, rather than as a money-making proposition, although funds raised by the dance will go to further the "Wooden Box" campaign.

The dance will be on May 22 at Club Diamond, in Diamond Springs. All friends of the "Wooden Box" campaign and dancers generally will want to keep the date in mind.

STRONG CAST IN NEW FILM

'John Meade's Woman' Feature Wednesday At Empire

Edward Arnold as the public has come to love him—large, well-fed, self-indulgent, master of men and money—comes to the screen in his favored role again in "John Meade's Woman," a gripping love story, at the Empire Theater tonight only.

The picture also serves as the vehicle in which Francine Larrimore, famous Broadway stage star, makes her initial appearance in films after a brilliant career on the legitimate stage. She plays the role of a poor country girl whom Arnold, wealthy industrialist, marries to humiliate his high-born fiancée, Gail Patrick, when he discovers that she is untrue to him.

The mental conflict which arises when the girl discovers this, how her love turns to hate and then how she discovers that hate can never take the place of love, forms much of the subsequent action which embraces a story of deep emotion and romance. George Bancroft, John Trent, Sidney Blackmer, Jonathan Hale and many other film favorites round out the brilliant cast of the rapid-moving story.

MCLEMORE PICKS SENATORS AS SURE PENNANT WINNERS

By HENRY MCLEMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK (P)—Boy, you better get on those Washington Senators of mine while the gettings good, because it looks like a breeze for 'em from here on in.

I don't see how they can miss. With only 152 more games to go it's a cinch. They knocked off the Yankees yesterday and would be leading the league today if they hadn't made a gesture toward old man Mack's age and semi-pros in the opener, and dropped a courtesy one to the Athletics.

If the Yanks are world champions—and they had a mail order pennant saying they were, floating from the centerfield mast—then the Washingtons have a right to sue them for taking glory under false pretenses.

Senor Lefty Gomez, who pitched for the Yankees, has ridden some rough bronchos in his day out there in rodeo, California, but he never had a rougher ride than the Senators took him for at the stadium. That fireball of his had signs on it, and his curves and dipsy-dooes were about as puzzling as a swinging door.

And who do you think led the attack on Senor Gomez's alleged deliveries? None other than Aloysius Szymanski, a gentleman who, immediately on learning that his parents had christened him that, hastened to the courts of the land and had it changed to Al Simmons. Clark Griffith, Washington owner, bought Simmons from the Detroiters for $15,000, and he's the biggest bargain since Alaska. Al, his foot still in the bucket, punched out a home run and two singles in five times up.

Watching Simmons get his three-for-five, brought back the memory of a hot September day in Chicago, two years ago. Al was getting the second highest salary in baseball from the White Sox then, and still wore a dazzling purchase price. But he was a miserable gent. His batting average was down in the .250 neighborhood, and along with everybody else he knew he was the biggest flop of the 1935 season.

He could talk of nothing but his batting slump.

"It's a nightmare," he said. "I've had advice from every player on the team. I've consulted every catcher in the league. They all offered different suggestions, and as a result I'm jumping around that plate like a jackrabbit. I've even watched movies of myself batting in 1927, when I hit .392 for the Athletics. But nothing seems to help. I'm telling you that unless I hit .325 next year I'm going to quite baseball."

The Sox sold him to Detroit—for $75,000—and Al, in 143 games batted .327. For some reason—the report is that club dissension was behind it all—the Tigers let him go to Washington for a song—and not a very elegant song, at that. And now he's happy. In addition to his hitting, he's fielding just as brilliantly as he did when he was with the Athletics and was the best outfielder in either league. He still does that silly jig while waiting for a ball to drop into his arms. Twice yesterday he came tearing in to handle balls that seemed sure hits.

Simmons had able support from his mates yesterday, especially "Thin Man" Shanty Hogan. Down to a streamlined 230, Hogan seems ready for a great year. He made a bare-handed catch of a foul ball off the netting yesterday that was a beauty. And he handled Monte Weaver perfectly. After all, you can't catch five years for McGraw without learning something.

I'm telling you, boys, those men from Washington are a cinch.

Mrs. Verna Brame was a visitor Wednesday at Sacramento.

50,000 YANKS AT CORONATION

160,000 From Overseas
Will Spend About
75 Millions

By DAN ROGERS

United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON (P)—An early estimate places the number of overseas visitors to the coronation at 160,000 visitors—50,000 of them Americans. They are expected to spend more than $75,000,000 while here, in addition to $32,500,000 to travel to England.

One steamship line alone is bringing 25,000 Americans to Britain. This line has booked 21 sailings up to May 5, the date the Queen Mary sails with the last group of coronation visitors.

Travel agency and hotel officials, on the basis of advance arrangements, estimate that the average visitor will spend three weeks in Britain and will spend at least $500 during the period.

Most of this amount will be spent on accommodations, with entertainment next and gifts and souvenirs third. Travel, from taxicabs about London to plane hops to Paris or Berlin, will take several dollars.

The average cost of an ocean trip from the United States is about $250, although many coronation visitors will spend several times that amount. But using this figure as a basis, Americans will contribute $12,500,000 to the shipping companies.

A few of the events arranged:
May 4—Reception by Lord and Lady Londonderry at Londonderry House for 1,000 guests.

May 10—English Speaking Union reception, with the Marquess and Marchioness of Willington as host and hostess.

May 15—Garden party for 1,500 guests at Sutton Place, by the Duke and Duchess of Sutherland.

May 24—Empire Day, special service at St. Paul's Cathedral, to be attended by the King and Queen. A certain number of seats will be reserved for overseas visitors.

May 29—Garden party at Hatfield for 1,500 guests, by the Marquess and Marchioness of Salisbury.

June 3—Special recital in Westminster Abbey, on the new organ, toward the cost of which the people of the empire contributed.

June 8—Garden party at Eton College.

June 21—Evening party at Clandon Park, by the Earl and Countess of Onslow.

June 26—Air display at Hendon, with special stands for overseas visitors.

The coronation tattoo, gigantic military spectacle and pageant, will be held at Aldershot, June 10-12 and 15-19, and will be witnessed by hundreds of thousands.

Angelo Chichini, Contra Costa County, received 75 cents per pound for his first shipment of asparagus.
